

Real Southern Biscuits

Nothing on the table seems half so good as real Southern biscuits. There's a delicacy and flavor about them that simply can't be imitated.

Southern women know that soft red winter wheat makes the best biscuit flour. And they know that is made from the very choicest parts of selected soft red winter wheat. This biscuit flour is then sifted together with just the right proportions of phosphate, soda, and salt—in order to save you work.

GILSTER'S MOTHER'S JOY SELF-RISING FLOUR

To make real Southern biscuits with Gilster's Mother's Joy self-rising flour, just add shortening, milk or water, and bake in a hot oven.

"Mrs. Tubbs, of Shanty Town," a comedy drama, in three acts will be presented at the school building, Friday night, December 10th, by local talent. The proceeds to be used for the piano fund. Come, and bring some one with you and enjoy two hours of optimism.

Graden Bolen was in Huntingdon the first of the week on business.

Miss Dorris Montgomery, of Cedar Grove, was a visitor on Route 1, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Stanfill were in Lexington, Saturday.

When you feel the blues a comin' Whistle, laugh or sing;

It makes the other fellow happy, And you feel like a king.

Ain't no use to set a sighin', Clouds go rollin' by,

Just you smile and see how quickly Sunshine fills the sky.

—From the (unpublished) poetry of Mrs. Tubbs.

L. T. Francisco spent the first part of the week here.

Cecil Roberts and Willie Flake were in Westport, Sunday.

Another distillery outfit was captured by officers Friday of last week, about 5 miles N. E. of here. It seems that they are making a great success in capturing these illicit distilleries in this community. We trust they will soon have them all eradicated and then our community will be better and the money that is spent for the vile "stuff" can be given to a better cause, which is needed so bad at this time.

B. G. Walker was in Tennessee City Sunday on social business.

"I ain't goin' to worry. Theh ain't no use in histin your umbrella until it begins to rain."—Mrs. Tubbs, of Shantytown.

W. R. Bolen and R. E. Kizer were in Lexington last week on business.

Jesse Bird, of Lexington, was here Sunday.

Guilford Sullivan and wife, of Lexington, were here last week-end visiting relatives.

Miss Gussie Gobelet, of Clarksburg, was a visitor in the home of S. F. Ringgold and family, Sunday.

"My husband's maiden name was Theodore. He was a real handsome man, and a member of the Imperial Order of Woodmen,"—Mrs. Tubbs, of Shantytown.

John Derry was in Lexington Saturday on business.

George Webb and family visited in Hollow Rock Sunday.

The Wildersville and Clarksburg Basket-ball teams will play a game here next Friday, Dec. 10th, at 1:30.

It will be a close game, don't miss it. Everything is bound to come out alright, sometime, so just keep on smiling,"—Mrs. Tubbs, of Shantytown.

The town was shocked very much when the news spread of the death of Mrs. Mollie E. Parker, yet, we believe she has gone to that blissful home, the Lord promised the ones who were faithful to Him. We do not believe a better woman ever lived. She always had a good word and smile for all.

Rev. W. F. Tuten, of Tiptonville, is visiting his wife, here.

Lester Sanders, of Timberlake, was here Sunday.

Drummers Bolen and Fronabarger, were in your city Monday.

W. M. Houston, of Parsons, was here Monday.

Rev. A. U. Nunnery, of Parsons, will preach at Mt. Pisach, Route 2, Sunday.

Toof Fronabarger spent last week-end in Memphis.

T. D. Birchett was here Monday.

George Massy and wife, of Route 1, are moving to Farmville, this week.

Drummer J. D. Tilson was in Huntingdon Monday.

A wedding of very much interest in this community was solemnized last Saturday evening, when Bedford E. Todd and Miss Ladine Rust were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, in front of the residence of Rev. Fleetwood Ball, in Lexington, with only a few friends to witness the ceremony. After the marriage, the bridal party motored to the home of Bee Rush, where a sumptuous wedding supper was theirs to partake. The groom is a highly estimable, and worthy and capable man, being at present an employee of the U. S. Civil Service Commission, as Rural Route Carrier at this place, a position he has filled well for the last five years. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rust, and possesses all of the charms that are necessary in making a happy home. We wish to extend to them many years of joy and happiness. They went to house-keeping Monday of this week, in the groom's home in the East part of town.

Mrs. Sallie Kizer, aged 91 years and some few months, died Saturday night, Dec. 4th, from the infirmities of old age, having been in declining health for the past six months. She is survived by four children, several grandchildren, and a goodly number of great-grandchildren, to mourn her departure, beside a great number of other relatives and friends. Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. W. F. Tuten, after which her body was laid to rest of its many years of usefulness here on earth, and to await the day when the body will be called to join the soul up yonder in heaven.

If you have the "blues" or feel that someone has done you an injustice, or that you have been thinking of something for past time, or of the money-perplexing problems of life, go to the school house Friday night, Dec. 10th, and see the dawn of a brighter day.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Several new pupils entered Monday, and others who contemplate going any this term should start as the school has been cut short, and you have already missed a greater part of the school.

The Wildersville basketball team will play their first match game next Friday—the Clarksburg team being the opposer. You should come and see the games—it will give all boys encouragement.

Come to all the school entertainments, they not only give you your money's worth of amusement but the money goes for the benefit of the school.

LEXINGTON WITNESSES.

The Names of Lexington Persons Familiar to All.

Who are the witnesses?

They are Lexington people—

Residents of Lexington who have had kidney backache, kidney ills, bladder ills; who have used Doan's Kidney Pills. These witnesses endorse Doan's Kidney Pills.

One Lexington resident who speaks is J. F. Winslow. He says: "My kidneys were weak for years as a result of an attack of fever. Often my back got so bad I could hardly get up and down and severe pains would seize me in my loins. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. I tried different medicines, but got no relief whatever, until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They were just what I needed and rid me of the ailments in a short time. I hope that my endorsement will be the means of helping other kidney sufferers."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same Mr. Winslow had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.
